

When Mark Conner mysteriously disappears one day, its left to George Crawford to take his place. She soon becomes an expert in network security, but is baffled by the impenetrable VLAN47. As she starts to unravel Marks notes, she finds herself pulled into the GAP. The space between the routers that should not exist. A dark and sinister dimension between good and evil, between the LAN and the WAN. Where Mark failed, George has no choice but to solve the mystery of VLAN47 and free them from the shackles of the Dark TimeLord Of Lan. Will she solve the ultimate game and fix the GAP which Mark has created? A passionate tale of routing, protocols and topology.
